

THE INSTITUTE FOR INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION AND THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION PRESENT:
THE NINTH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL FILM SERIES

Three Films, Three Countries, Three Days: Kenya, China, Spain

Sunday, March 1st, 2015, 2:00PM
Floyd Theater of the Swain Student Activities Center, 2100 S. Floyd St.

The First Grader (2010) Directed by Justin Chadwick
Setting of the film: Kenya

In this touching film, learn the true story of an 84 year-old Kenyan villager who fights for his right to get an education that he could not afford in the past.

Moderator: Dr. Mary Ashlock – Professor in the Department of Communication

Monday, March 2nd, 2015, 4:00PM
Floyd Theater of the Swain Student Activities
Center, 2100 S. Floyd St.
Hero (2002) directed by Yimou Zhang
Setting of the film: China

In this action packed film starring Jet Li, you are taken on a classic warrior's journey to overcome the army that massacred his people

Moderator: Matthew Johns – Graduate Student in the Department of Communication

Tuesday, March 3rd, 2015, 5:00PM
Floyd Theater of the Swain Student Activities
Center, 2100 S. Floyd St.

Blancanieves (2012) directed by Pablo Berger
Setting of the film: Spain

This film is a twist unlike any other on the classic, Snow White fairy tale.

Roger Ebert of the Chicago Sun-Times stated regarding Blancanieves, "This film is a wonderment! A striking...full-bodied visually stunning film."

Moderator: Dr. Manuel Medina – Associate Professor in Modern Languages

Moderators will discuss the film following the screening: For additional information regarding the film series, please contact Matthew Johns (mrjohn20@louisville.edu) or Dr. Margaret D'Silva, Department of Communication at 852-6976